

I listen to K-love radio and hear local community news as well as music. The effects would be great as Christian radio is one of the few stations I listen to. It is a wonderful alternative to some of the other stations.